PREMAM In 2008, George (Iain Priya), a 16-year-old pre-degree student, develops an unrequited love for Mary (Anupama Parameswaran), the so-called "princess girl" in the region of Aluva. George and his friends Shanbu (Shakshin Varma) and Koya (Kishan Shankar) follow Mary and her companion Celina (Eva Prakash) around every day. George decides that he wants to propose to Mary, and Shanbu and Koya accompany him to do so. However, George does not propose quickly enough, and is heartbroken to learn that Mary is in relationship with a different boy, also named George. The first scene of the movie ends in 2002 when George, Shanbu and Koya feel depressed realising that they have failed in their pre-degree final examination.

Three years later, in 2005, George and his friends enroll in college where he becomes a notorious coward. While ragging the newcomers, George and his friends meet Maler (Sai Pallavi), a new lecturer in their college, who is a fan of George. George falls for her and seemingly gets her to feel the same about him. Simultaneously, George's college teacher Vinod Sr (Nithya Forti) also falls for her. In 2006, Maler goes to visit her family in Kozhikode, accompanied by her cousin, Anushagan (Ananth Naga). Maler and Anushagan have an accident, which results in Maler losing her memory, so she regains her past in college. George and his friends travel to Kozhikode and George is again left heart broken when Maler fails to recognize him. Maler ends up marrying Anushagan.

In 2014, George, now in his 30s, is a rough character who runs a cafe with his childhood friend Jijo (Wilson Joseph). George meets 29-year-old Celina (Madhura Sebastian) in his cafe and falls for her, not recognizing that she was the girl who used to walk home from school with Mary every day. Despite the age difference, George decides to propose to Celina, but he is again left heart broken when he learns that she is engaged to a man named Ronnie Varghese (Ajithkumar Putharen). Ronnie is a cocaine-addict who insists Celina continuously, and as a result the engagement is called off. Ronnie's obsessive behavior in pestering Celina upsets George, and in response, he gathers his friends Jijo, Shanbu and Koya, and they beat up Ronnie at his dispirited hangout.

George marries Celina. During their engagement function party, Maler arrives with her husband, Anushagan. It is revealed that Maler has recovered her old memories, but she refuses to divulge this to George, because she seems happy at last with Celina.
